

*A Warm Proposition*

Now is the time to prepare for the cold and disagreeable weather that we always get at this time of the year.

We Recommend

Chamois Vests and Chest Protectors. If you have never worn anything of this kind just drop in and see the line.

We Have the Frost King and Frost Queen

for men and women—the best article of the kind made.

We have in CHEST PROTECTORS the following kinds:

Our Leader, Klondike, Hudson, Peary, and Alaska.

Remember we are the people who sell everything in the drug line.

Ralph Bingham, At Central Hall, Yale, Friday evening, December 6th. For a genuine reproduction of Oel-schlagel's performance on the violin, call on George McIntyre. He can give it to perfection.

Rev. Fr. Chas. Hane will hold services on Sunday, December 1st, in Speaker Catholic church at 8:30, and at Michael's hall, Yale, at 10:30 a. m.

A thousand things by it are done far better than most things do one. We refer to Rocky Mountain Tea made by Madison Medicine Co. 35c. Grant Holden.

G. C. Meisel has just issued a special holiday catalogue of handkerchiefs and gloves. He is quite anxious that you shall possess a copy and requests you to write for one.

Keep in mind the one-day farmers' institutes to be held in St. Clair county this winter, reference to which was published in The Expositor several weeks ago. As soon as the dates for holding these meetings are fixed we will publish them.

The annual supper of the Disciple church held at the home of Mrs. Phelps on Kennelick street last Friday evening was a success in every way. An elegant supper was furnished, those who attended enjoyed the feast and the society is about $40 richer.

Ralph Bingham, for many years known throughout the country as "The Boy Orator", will appear before a Yale audience in Central Hall, next Friday evening, December 6th. Mr. Bingham is the most versatile entertainer on the American platform today, and with his stories, songs, violin solos, mirth, mimicry and music he is sure to please.

This week we received an atlas of Canada, containing maps of the world and of different portions of the Dominion of Canada; also excellent photographic scenes, illustrating public buildings and prairie views in the Canadian North West. Any of our readers sending their name and address to Jas. Grieve, Sault Ste. Marie, will receive a copy of this valuable book free of charge.

Dr. Warner Cornell, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist, of 229 Huron ave., over Knill's drug store, Port Huron, will be at the Rapley House, Yale, the second Friday of each month where he can be consulted on diseases of above organs only. Glasses fitted. His next visit will be on Friday, Dec. 12th. He will be in his Port Huron, office every day in the month except Fridays.

We have offered space in The Expositor free to the ministers of the town in which to make announcements of Sunday services. For a time this column contained information of interest to church goers and was quite liberally patronized by Yale's preachers. We are sorry to say that for two weeks nothing has been handed in under the head of church items. It is to be hoped that hereafter each pastor of the different church denominations will feel free to hand in any news items.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by Grant Holden.

Jumped on a Ten Penny Nail.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoes as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by Grant Holden.

You will miss a rare treat if you fail to hear Ralph Bingham, Friday evening next.

Queen of Bells Specialty Co. at Central Hall, next Monday evening, December 2.
Cold, raw west winds have held the situation during the past week and nearly everyone you meet has a frozen appearance.

A Thanksgiving supper will be served by the Ladies' Aid at the Biddleman school house, Friday evening, Nov. 29. Proceeds to apply on minister's salary.

Brings attractiveness to listless, unlovable girls, making them handsome, marriageable women. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents. Grant Holden.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cure biliousness, constipation and headache. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Grant Holden.

It was a case of mistaken identity, therefore we published in last issue that Jean Hayes wished to go to the homes of Yale citizens and do sewing. It should have read Anna Hayes.

Sir Knights keep in mind the nomination meeting at the next regular review of Yale Tent, K. O. T. M. to be held Tuesday evening, December 3rd. Election Tuesday evening, Dec. 17th.

Jas. C. Regan invites the public generally to visit his opening of holiday goods at his store in Melvin, on Monday, December 9th. A nice line has been selected and it will pay you to call and look it over.

Strayed or stolen from the premises of the undersigned in section 7, Greenwood township, on or about Nov. 10th, a six-week-old pig. Any information leading to its recovery will be rewarded by addressing Samuel Reichard, Yale.

Treasurers' tax receipts printed on short notice at The Expositor Printing House. We guarantee a good job and charge only 35 cts per hundred bound. (Give us your order. Commercial printing done in workmanlike manner. No botch work turned out.)

I have on hand about 1000 small cedar posts which I will sell at cost. I also have about 100,000 shingles and a lot of flooring that I wish to dispose of at or nearly cost. This offer will last for the balance of the year only. All other stock will be sold at rock-bottom prices. Here is your chance if you intend building.
C. F. Mighels.

Contractor Parks has given up the contract to complete the new hotel and we are informed that he has turned it over to Mr. Paisley who will secure workmen and push the building to completion. If everything goes along smoothly with no further drawbacks, Jerry expects to occupy the new hotel some time in January.

The work of repairing the Yale Flouring Mill is progressing and the mill will be in running order about the 10th of December. You would hardly know that fire had done any damage, as new spouting, new joists, new flooring, new bolting cloths, the rolls have been re-ground and everything has been painted and fitted in first-class shape.

J. C. Holden, Dave Welch, Frank and Wellington Newell are home from their hunting trip and all claim to feel much better, gaining several pounds apiece during their short stay. Two deer is all the party secured but nevertheless their friends were treated to a part of the spoils of the hunt. The editor's family returns thanks for a nice venison stew.

Richmond has a chance to secure a flax mill for its town. If the neighborhood farmers would sign contracts to raise 300 acres of hemp and flax, Livingston and Co. would put up a flax mill there. If Richmond citizens know a good thing when they see it, they will go ahead with this enterprise which would certainly put new life into the old town and furnish employment for a large number of hands. Yale would never think of parting with her flax mill.

It is certainly to be expected that our merchants will do a fine large business through the coming holidays. It has been a prosperous year. Farmers have the best of prices for their produce. Laboring men of all classes have plenty of work. Money is circulating in plenty and the future outlook is most flattering. It remains for the merchant and the business man to place the public in an attractive way through the best advertising medium of his town. That medium is The Expositor.

New Feed Mill.

We wish to inform the farmers of this vicinity that we are operating a new Feed Mill in Yale, just north of Fred Currier's shops. We guarantee good work and ask a share of your patronage.

Notice the adv. of the Queen of Bells Specialty Co. in another column of this issue.

The creek has frozen over and the boys and girls are having lots of sport these days skating.

I'd leave my happy home and cross the deep blue sea, rather than be without Charley and my Rocky Mountain Tea. Grant Holden.

Read the poetry headed "Whar Dew I Cum In?" on the inside pages of this week's Expositor. It is the soliloquy of a farmer on the free raw sugar question.

From the Calhoun Signal published at Grantsville, W. Va., we learn that Rev. S. G. Bettes is holding a series of meetings in that town and is having good success.

We received a letter from James Bright dated at Seio, Oregon, November 18th, in which he sends one dollar for The Expositor. He says it's a fine country where he is, that the flowers are still in bloom and the grass is as green as ever.

Justin Robinson, who has spent the past two months at Newberry, returned home Saturday bringing with him three fine deer. We are thankful to him for a fine venison roast. Justin says that Thornton Ferguson and wife, at whose home he stayed while in the Upper Peninsula, have a good farm and are making money.

Earnest Baxter, Roy McLaughlin and Irving Palmer have traps set along Mill creek. Of late some persons have been inclined to have taken several of the traps. The boys wish to announce that if the guilty ones are caught they will be dealt with according to law. It is rather small business to steal from the boys and we hope this notice will be sufficient to put a stop to the practice.

The Edna Farrell Stock Co. finished a four nights' engagement at Central Hall last Saturday evening. The hall was very well filled each night, and a large crowd attended the matinee. Every person who witnessed the entertainment speaks in high praise of Miss Farrell as an actress, being more than pleased with the nature of the dramas presented. The Co. went from here to Vassar Monday morning.

The Yale and Peck Hunting Club, consisting of six members, A. J. Ward, W. A. Cavanagh, Warren Roadway and James Wallace, of Yale; Charley Tornow, of Greenwood, and Charley Vannest, of Peck, returned Tuesday morning from their annual hunt in Presque Isle county. Eleven deer were captured and brought home. The boys say that plenty of deer were found and splendid sport was enjoyed hunting them.

Fred Colberg, who resides on a fine farm in Lynn township, one mile north and five miles west of Yale, came to this place last Saturday with a drove of sheep and sold them to H. E. Board. He remained in town all day, getting his dinner and supper at Hotel de Martin. In the afternoon he paid two or three small bills he owed about town and bought a dog from some boy and left it at Bart McNulty's. He intended going to Valley Centre on the 8 o'clock p.m. train and his boy was to meet him there but it seems that he did not get off the train at Valley Centre and his son came to Yale the next day in search of him. Up to the time of going to press his whereabouts are not known.

A new line of lamps at Mrs. Taylor's. Prices 'way down.

OES special will be held next week Wednesday evening, December 4th. Conferring of degrees.

Lida Baxter is now prepared to give music lessons, on either piano or organ at her home in Yale. All parties contemplating taking lessons invited to call. 28-3

Anna Hayes desires to inform the people of Yale that she is prepared to do sewing by the day or week. Those having sewing to do are requested to consult her. Charges moderate.

Came to the farm of Wm. Campbell, in Lynn township, on or about October 15th, a black and white yearling steer. Owner will please call, prove property, pay charges and take away. 31-4

NOTICE.—I have a few Barred Rock Cockerels of choice breeding to dispose of at reasonable rates. Orders left at Ward & Cavanagh's store will receive prompt attention. J. A. Cavanagh.

When you feel that life is hardly worth the candle take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse your stomach, tone up your liver and regulate your bowels making you feel like a new man. For sale by Grant Holden.

If this state does not have a severe epidemic of smallpox this winter, many of the best calculators will lose their guess. The mild form of the cases through the summer caused a great deal of carelessness in quarantining and measures taken were in scarcely any instance strict enough. When the cold weather arrives it is likely that smallpox will come also and Yale may not be exempt. Let all precautionary measures be taken.

John Hutton.

We would like to have every one enter into our competition noted in our ad. this week.

Make out a list of presents, suitable for ladies, that can be purchased at our store and get a fine set of asbestos sad irons. Make out a gentlemen's list and get a fine razor.

It costs you nothing to file your list of presents. An hour's work may be well repaid. Try it.

Tickets on sale December 2nd, 3rd and 4th, good returning up to and including December 5th, 1901.

A PHYSICIAN TESTIFIES.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have never used anything in my life that did me the good that did," says County Physician Geo. V. Scroggs, of Hall county, Ga. "Being a physician I have prescribed it and found it to give the best results." If the food you eat remains undigested in your stomach it decays there and poisons the system. You can prevent this by dieting but that means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer from neither dyspepsia nor starvation. The worst cases quickly cured. Never fails. Grant Holden.
